By Andrew Cameron, Coote Family Lawyers

11 October 2017

Sadly we farewelled Simon Fuller who has been with Coote Family Lawyers for nine years.

Simon has decided to continue his career at the Victorian Bar. We wish him all the success he deserves in his new role as a family law barrister. We have welcomed Alisha Edwards and Shai Sommer as solicitors to the firm.

Alisha joins us having practiced exclusively in family law at an established city firm since being admitted in 2013. She has experience in a broad range of children's and property matters and is a welcome addition to the Coote Family Lawyers team.

Shai joins us after 2 years of working as in-house at one of the largest privately owned businesses in Australia. His pragmatic approach and commercial knowledge brings a very flexible set of skills to the firm, to the great benefit of our clients. Harriet Geddes has recently been admitted to practice and move from her administrative role to join our team of solicitors. Finally we would like to warmly congratulate Justine Clark and Casey Ieraci for passing the Family Law Specialist Accreditation exams. They are now Law Institute of Victoria Accredited Family Law Specialists.
